INDEX FOR FEBRUARY

February 1 (Sunday)
Leaflets Distributed Calling for Removal of Romania's Head (p. 1)
5 Manila Papers Run Mitsui Letter for Kidnapped Japanese Executive (p. 1)
Pirated Copies of Controversial Movie 'Mishima' Making Rounds in Video Shops (p. 2)
Soviet Teens Say They Have No Problems (p. 3)
First Soviet Woman to Travel in Space Relieved of Women's Committee Post (p. 3)
Speakes Exits White House Post With Grantings of 'Pardons' (p. 4)
Soviet Book Claims Jonestown Massacre Carried Out by CIA (p. 4)
Editorial: Is Book Reading on the Wane?

February 2 (Monday)
R.P. Citizens Going to Polls to Decide on New Constitution (p. 17)
'Wakaoji Believed to Be Alive' (p. 17)
8,000 Rally Against Government's Sales Tax Plan (p. 18)
Sapporo Gets Set for Snow Festival (p. 18)
N.J. Firm Given Government Go-Ahead for New AIDS Drug (p. 19)
Resistance to Gorbachev Reforms Evident (p. 19)
More Businesslike Climate Expected As U.N. Human Rights Session Opens (p. 20)
Editorial: Mr. Gorbachev's Call for Party Democracy

February 3 (Tuesday)
Aquino Appears Headed for Landslide Victory (p. 33)
Opposition Grills Nakasone on LDP Tax, Defense Policies (p. 33)
CIA's Casey Resigns; Gates to Take Over (p. 33)
Philippine Police Find Former Hideout of Wakaoji's Kidnappers (p. 34)
Int'l Anti-Hijacking Meet Opens in Tokyo (p. 34)
Duvalier Clan Pilfered $120 Mil.: Report (p. 37)
Auto Air Cushion Unveiled (p. 38)
Kania, Kuroiwa Find Gold at Speedskating Sprints (p. 45)
Editorials: Japan, a Big Market for Int'l Education
Lifting the Ban on the Pill

February 4 (Wednesday)
Enrile Concedes Defeat as Aquino Romps Home (p. 49)
Prince Takamatsu Dies; Emperor Mourns Loss (p. 49)
JNR Gets Ministry Go-Ahead to Dead-End Last of Its 83 Unprofitable Local Lines (p. 50)
Illustrator Bringing Soseki's London Days to Life (p. 50)
Manila Paper Ad Seen as Mitsui Link With Abductors (p. 50)
15% of Great Pyramid Is Hollow: Expert (p. 51)
W. German Hackers Infiltrated Research Computer System, Tsukuba Lab Reveals (p. 51)
Gates Faces Tough Grilling on Iran Scandal (p. 52)
Editorial: Saving U.S. Electronics Industry

February 5 (Thursday)
Draft U.S. Trade Act Accuses Japan of 'Adversarial' Practices (p. 65)
Nakasone Qualifies Contributions to U.S. Bases (p. 65)
Iran Expels U.S. Scribe, IRNA Says (p. 65)
Stormy Seas Claim 4 Sailors; Several Missing (p. 66)
Osaka Gas Co. Shows Automatic Translation System (p. 66)
Experimental JNR Train Surpasses Speed Record (p. 66)
Union Boss Declares War on Plans for Tax Reform (p. 67)
Brezhnev's Son-in-Law Arrested for Taking Bribes (p. 69)
Dennis Shuts Out Kook III 4-0; America's Cup to Return Home (p. 79)
Editorial: A Welcome Victory for the Philippines

February 6 (Friday)
USSR Confirms Plan to Resume N-Tests for Security Interests (p. 81)
India, Pakistan to Withdraw Troops From Tense Frontier (p. 81)
Radar System to Check City's Rain-Flooded Sewers (p. 82)
Jackson Urges Japanese to Hire More Minorities (p. 83)
Japan, U.S. to Renew Science, Technology Cooperation Pact (p. 83)
Soviet Court Gives Long Sentences to Train Driver, Mate Asleep on Job (p. 84)
U.S. Trade Act Likely to Pass Senate, Foreign Ministry Says (p. 86)
Editorials: The 'Silver Columbia' (?) Plan
Needed: a Compromising Diet

February 7 (Saturday)
U.S. Cuts Naval Presence Close to Lebanon's Coast (p. 97)
Bentsen Trade Legislation Aimed at Forcing Reagan to Aid Industry (p. 97)
JAL Jumbo Jet's Fatal Flight Conditions Simulated in Mid-Air (p. 98)
6,800 U.S. Federal Buildings to Enforce No-Smoking Policy (p. 99)
U.S. Rejects Pacific Nuclear-Free Zone Agreement (p. 100)
Fuji, Isuzu Agree to Produce Vehicles at Joint U.S. Factory (p. 101)
British Printers End Fierce Strike Against Murdoch (p. 102)
GM Profits Nose Dive Nearly 70% in Late '86; Chrysler's Up 50% (p. 102)
Editorial: Thinking Death: AIDS and the Brain

February 8 (Sunday)
Police, Opposition Groups Clash in Seoul, Provinces (p. 113)
Panel Studies Labor Standards, Aims at Reducing Work Hours (p. 114)
Freed Journalist Denies Iran Spying Charges (p. 115)
Chernobyl Effects to Kill Thousands: NRC (p. 115)
Spain's Closed-University Rule Goads Teens Into Street Clashes With Police (p. 116)
Tokyo Stocks Set to Ride NTT Storm, Hit New Highs (p. 117)
Women Sweeten Men With Valentine Chocolates (p. 124)
Editorial An Indulgent Taste for Wood

February 9 (Monday)
11 North Korean Defectors in ROK (p. 129)
JSP, DSP Leaders Promise All-Out War on Sales Tax (p. 130)
Veteran Painter Koyama Dies of Heat Failure (p. 130)
Haitians Mark Date of Duvalier's Outer (p. 131)
Two Soviet Cosmonauts Link Up With Mir Station (p. 131)
Editorials: The Ordeal of Mr. Wakaoji
'But, Baby, It's Cold Outside'

February 10 (Tuesday)
R.P. Forces Ready for New Assaults on Communists (p. 145)
Peres Won't Act to Stop Killing of Four Hostages in Lebanon (p. 145)
Yamaguchi-Gumi, Ichikawakai to End Fights (p. 146)
Welfare College to Accept Enrollment of Refugee (p. 146)
Iran Frees Canadian Engineer Held on Suspicion of Spying (p. 148)
Mexico Mobilizes Thousands of Troops in Massive Search for Escaped Convicts (p. 149)
Editorial: U.S. Trade Deficit: Everybody's Problem

February 11 (Wednesday)
Solemn Funeral Rites for Prince Takamatsu (p. 161)
Moscow Says 140 Activists Freed (p. 161)
Hokkaido Amateurs Make 8mm Movie About Discrimination Faced by Ainu (p. 162)
Video, Law Sources Reveal LDP Dietman, Yakuza Friends (p. 162)
Korean Defections a Hard Lesson for Japan (p. 163)
Call for Unity Marks Opening of Central America, EC Meet (p. 164)
Nuclear Tests, Protest, Power and Safety (p. 168)
Editorials: A Scientific Satellite's Success
Commercializing the Linear Motor Car

February 12 (Thursday) Newspaper Holiday

February 13 (Friday)
R.P. Charter in Force; Army Offensive to Resume (p. 177)
'86 Sees Drastic 44% Jump in Teen Suicides (p. 178)
3rd Annual Japan Prizes Announced (p. 179)
S. African Parliament Gets List of People Held Over 30 Days; 281 Kids Included (p. 180)
Boeing to Offer Major Parts Replacement for 747s (p. 181)
Editorials: Changing the People-Pet Lifestyle
Turning East

February 14 (Saturday)
Nippon Steel Announces Sharp Retrenchment Plan (p. 193)
AIDS Conference Focuses on Prevention, Research (p. 194)
Hokkaido Univ. Slavic Studies Center Creates Data Base on Soviet Economy (p. 194)
Carbon Dioxide in Cameroon Killed 1,700 in Aug.: Report (p. 195)
Disputed U.S. TV Series 'Amerika' to Air (p. 196)
Cars Lead Retail-Sales Plunge as Americans Tighten Tax Belt (p. 198)
Editorials: Looking for Justice From Pyongyang
A Question of Sport

February 15 (Sunday)
Int'l Peace Forum Opens in Moscow (p. 209)
'Japan Should Compensate for Indonesian Massacre' (p. 209)
Visiting U.S. Official Suggests Annuity Pensions Could Help Japanese Workers (p. 210)
Survey Reveals Many Japanese Want to Work After Turning 60 (p. 210)
'Type A' Women, 'Type B' Men Not a Good Mix (p. 211)
Gorbachev May Reveal Dark Areas of Soviet History (p. 213)
World's AIDS Tally Grows by 2,000 (p. 213)
Editorial: Applying the Anti-Prostitution Law
Lexicon Aids Foreigners Studying Japanese (p. 218)

February 16 (Monday)
'Jumblatt Appeals to Pro-Iranian Shiite Faction to Release Waite' (p. 223)
Airbus Launches Short-Haul A320 (p. 223)
More Men Sharing Child Care (p. 224)
Woman Has 15th Baby; Sets Sights on Record (p. 224)
Kentucky Gov. to Arrive for 6th Visit (p. 224)
Peruvian Police Question 800 Guerrilla Suspects After Raids on Universities (p. 226)
Lawyers Try to Beat Deadline in Argentine 'Dirty War' Cases (p. 227)
Sakharov Appeals for Basic Human Liberties (p. 227)
Editorial: Hostages: The West Over a Barrel
Reform of Education System — Considering Alternatives to Pain (p. 229)

February 17 (Tuesday)
Gorbachev Eyes Creation of Guarantees for Peace (p. 239)
Yosif Begun Is Released From Soviet Work Camp (p. 239)
Palestinian Rebels, Amal Clash Near Refugee Camp in Beirut (p. 239)
Code Revision Needed for Computer Crimes (p. 240)
Chinese Building Replica of Old Ship for Nagasaki (p. 240)
34 People Killed in Strife-Torn Sri Lanka (p. 242)
'300 Ethiopians Killed in Border Attack' (p. 242)
Editorial: Biotech Research Takes Off

February 18 (Wednesday)
12 Ministers Fired in Radical Shake-Up of Vietnamese Gov't (p. 253)
Wakaoji's Kidnappers Demand Full Ransom (p. 253)
'Pregnant Women With AIDS Virus Urged to Abort' (p. 253)
'85 Tokyo Assembly Poll Declared Unconstitutional by Supreme Court (p. 254)
Rigid Education System Obstacle to Returnees (p. 254)
World Orchid Show Set for March in Kanagawa (p. 255)
Contra Director Quits to Ensure U.S. Aid (p. 256)
Japan Will Support Pentagon's Space Station Plan: Kuranari (p. 256)
War Crimes Trial in Israel Focuses on Nazi SS ID Card (p. 257)
Okita, 4 Others Receive Britannica Awards (p. 257)
Philippine Communist Rebels Say No to Further Peace Talks (p. 265)
Editorial: Steelmakers' Survival Bid

February 19 (Thursday)
Competitiveness is Focus of Future Trade: Reagan (p. 269)
Japan, U.S. OK'd ¥150-¥160 Exchange Rate Target in Jan. (p. 269)
AIDS Reporting Plan Proposed in Drafts of Prevention Bill (p. 270)
Aerobics May Also Be Hazardous to Your Health (p. 270)
U.N. Environment Panel to Meet in Tokyo (p. 271)
Int'l Organ for Lakes Opens Meeting in Otsu (p. 271)
MITI to Tell Microchip Makers 10% Production Cut Needed (p. 274)
Recycle Shops Help Seller and Buyer (p. 280)
Editorial: Motherhood: Ambitions and Consequences

February 20 (Friday)
G-5, G-7 Meets Scheduled for Weekend, Sources Say (p. 285)
Japan's First Marine Observation Satellite Is Launched (p. 285)
Bullying Cases Decline by Almost Half: NPA (p. 286)
U.S. Senate Panel Votes to Halt Contra Aid (p. 288)
Human Rights in South Africa Worsen: U.S. State Dept. (p. 288)
GM Chairman Stresses Risks of U.S. Anger About Trade (p. 290)
OECD Fears Global Farm Trade Wars (p. 291)
Editorials: Currency Exchange Rates, Take Two
Human Rights for the Mentally Ill

February 21 (Saturday)
BOJ Decides to Cut Key Rate to 2.5% (p. 301)
Former Calif. M'bishi Bank Exec Charged With Embezzling $45 Mil. (p. 301)
JSP Wants Makoto Oda to Run in Tokyo Gubernatorial Race (p. 302)
JNR Getting Ready for Face Lift (p. 302)
Scientist Make Big Alzheimer's Discovery (p. 303)
Aspartame Is Linked to Seizures (p. 303)
U.S. Group Warns Europe, Japan, Soviets About Dangers of Chlorofluorocarbons (p. 303)
U.S.-Egypt Attack on Libya Said Planned in '85 (p. 304)
U.S. Government Trade Bill Worries Kuranari (p. 305)
Editorial: The BBC on Trial: Lessons for Japan

February 22 (Sunday)
Optimism, Skepticism Surround International Currency Meets (p. 317)
U.S.-EC Trade Action Against Japan Sought (p. 317)
Death Row Convict Still in Critical Condition (p. 318)
Foreign Ministry Sacks Career Diplomat (p. 318)
Canada Clamps Down on Flow of Refuge-Seekers (p. 319)
'Reagan OK'd Order Giving CIA Authority to Kidnap Terrorists' (p. 319)
W. Europe Fascinated With Gorbachev Reforms (p. 320)
'Icy Hot' Star Discovered in Milky Way (p. 321)
Editorial: A Will — and Right — to Go on Working
Harajuku Sets Up 'Our Town' Project (p. 328)

February 23 (Monday)
Finance Ministers Agree to Try Halting Slide of $ (p. 333)
Tower Commission Questions McFarlane on Arms Cover-Up (p. 333)
1,000th Indochinese Refugee Graduates From Yamato Center (p. 334)
20% of College Life Spent With Alcohol (p. 334)
Egypt, Sudan Sign 'Brotherhood Charter' (p. 335)
U.S. Gov't Officials Think CIA, Casey Had Key Roles in Iran-Contra Affair (p. 336)
Editorial: Promising Trends in South Africa
America's 'Invisible' Poor Come in White Male Form (p. 339)
Mota Paces Portuguese Team in Yokohama Women's Relay (p. 341)

February 24 (Tuesday)
Miyazawa Reveals Paris Pact on Exchange Mart Intervention (p. 349)
7,000 Syrian Troops Dig Into West Beirut (p. 349)
Osaka District Court Fines Korean Fingerprint Refuser (p. 350)
Popular Tokyo Discotheque 'Mugen' Closes Doors (p. 350)
Andy Warhol Dies of Heart Attack in New York (p. 351)
Zia Concludes India Visit, Pleads for Better Ties (p. 352)
Europe's New Airbus A320 Makes First Test Flight (p. 356)
Editorial: The Pledges of Paris

February 25 (Wednesday)
Cosmetics Retailers Ready to Quit LDP En Masse (p. 365)
Revised Law Would Give Rights to Mental Patients (p. 365)
Wildlife Import Controls Should Be Tighter: WWF (p. 366)
Gov't Group Studies Disposal of Slightly Radioactive Wastes (p. 366)
Launch of 2 Dailies Intensifies London's Press Wars (p. 368)
Matsushita to Pay IBM for Copyright Violation (p. 369)
Hanoi Plans to Spur Private Enterprises (p. 374)
Editorial: Developing the FSX Fighter

February 26 (Thursday)
Aquino Calls On Filipinos to Fight for Social Justice (p. 381)
Marcos Backer Bringing Guns Into R.P.: Papers (p. 381)
Brain Death=Human Death, Science Committee Decides (p. 382)
Oda Does About-Face, Reconsiders Candidacy (p. 382)
Vegetables May Curb Cancer: Scientists (p. 383)
'1.5 Mil. in U.S. May Have AIDS Infection' (p. 384)
NKK Presents Plan for 8,000 Job Cuts, Closure of Furnace (p. 386)
Editorial: An Alliance of Raised Voices

February 27 (Friday)
Reagan Gave Too Much Leeway to NSC in Arms Sales: Report (p. 397)
Court Rules Taiwan Owns Kyoto Dormitory (p. 397)
'Soviets Facing Growing Japanese Deterrent' (p. 397)
Plan to Scrap 101 Redundant Summary Courts Made Known (p. 398)
U.S. University Reps Arrive for Talks Over Possible Sites for New Campuses (p. 399)
Americans Unhappy With Deficit, Bush Tells Komeito Leader Yano (p. 402)
NTT Develops World's First 16-Megabit Chip (p. 402)
Japanese Auto Exports to EC Jump 46% in Jan., JAMA Says (p. 402)
Editorials: Japan's Need for a New Car Fuel
Celebrity as Art

February 28 (Saturday)
Opposition Parties Agree to Start Diet Debate on Budget (p. 413)
Report Says Reagan Helped North Raise Funds for Contras (p. 413)
10,000 Welcome North Defectors in Seoul Stadium (p. 413)
Self-Immolation Cases Hits Record High in '86: Agency (p. 414)
Agreement Reached on Scope of U.S. Lawyers Services Here (p. 414)
Thai Premier Announces War on Golden Triangle Drug King (p. 415)
Church of England to Admit Women Priests (p. 415)
Ice Fetches $1.6 Million in Cold Cash (p. 415)
'Chinese Trade Deficit With Japan Endangering Bilateral Relations' (p. 416)
Editorials: A Step Backward in Search for N-Accord
Mounting Criticism in Wakaoji Case